LOOKING GOOD

It's as clear as black and white. And just as bold. The Mini Designer. Created by Mary Quant. For today. For the way you live. For a girl like you.

It's looking good, in the colours you like to wear. Bright white or sleek black bodywork. Tinted glass. Dazzling seats with Mary Quant stripes. A designer interior, from the black carpets to the stylish doors.

You've got great music to get you to the next night club, with a radio/stereo cassette player. Reclining front seats with head restraints. Even a plush, leather-bound steering wheel with Mary's famous Daisy motif.

You can thank Mary for some other nice touches too. Like the vanity mirror in both sunvisors. And the practical rubber mats to keep the carpet clean when Wimbledon turns into a downpour.

The Mini Designer. By Mary Quant. You've never looked so good.
